CAPT. T.'S CLEVER VICTORY.

AFIBR A HARD FINISH HE DE FEATS ED KEARNEY BY A HEAD.

An Enjoyable Day's Racing at St. Asaph-W. C. Daly Loses the First Event with Mimyara by a Nose-Midstar Spoils Jimmy McLaughlin's Very Good Thing-

Solitaire, Premier, and Ceremony Win.

WARRINGTON, April 5 .- There were between 90 and 4,000 persons at St. Asaph to-day, and the racing was very enjoyable, the weather being as fine and springlike as could be desired. The feature of the day was the handicap for all ages at one mile, in which Capt. T. beat Ed Kearney, the favorite, by a short head in a most gruelling finish, the distance being run in 1:42%. W. C. Daly's luck caused many persons to play Capt. T. at 5 to 1. Charade and Sir Dixon, Jr., also had followers. Capt. T. took the lead be-fore going half a mile, and he held it to the wire, Keefe riding a strong finish and stalling off Ed Kearney's rush through the stretch.

Himyara was the choice for the opening dash for two-year-olds at half a mile, but a lot of money found its way into the ring on Cadir, Monolith, and Applegate. Soon after the flag fell, Applegate started for the outside of the track and took Monolith with him. This enabled Himyara to go to the front, but he was immedaltely challenged by Cadiz. Street's filly hung on very stanchly, and beat the favorite a nose in a whipping finish. St. Michael was the good thing for the dash at six and one-half furlongs, but Midstar, the cast off from the Oneck Stable, at 3 to 1, took the big gelding into camp right cleverly, outsprinting him through the stretch and winning with something to spare. St. Michael was lame after the race.

Jack White, whom everybody likes, played his good horse Chiswick to win the fourth race at seven furlongs. Solitairs, an N to I chaine, overhauled Ornus, who had made the pace to the turn, and won with something to spare by a length. Chiswick, after being prominent for three-quarters of a mile, tired badly. Ornus pulled up very lame.

a length. Chiswick, after being prominent for three-quariers of a mile, tired badly. Ornus pulled up very lame.

Vice Regal was the most strongly touted of the two-year-olds that were named for the dash at haif a mile, but there was a lot of money on Old Age, and there was a strong tip out on Jimmy McLaughn's beautiful colt Premier. Premier and Charma were in front during the early stages of the race, but Premier shook the filly off and led into the homestretch by two lengths. Old Age has a very bad mouth and led did not run well the carly part of the race. When once under way, however, he ran like a wild horse, and, overhauling Premier and Vice Regal, a grand flush ensued. Little Doggett rode one of the best races of his carcer and won with Premier by a head, Vice Regal was third, only a neck away.

only a neck away.

Ceremony, the favorite, won the hast race for maidens in slow time. Ruby was second. While at the post Sweet Kate fell and threw Johnny Shields. The boy was frightened, but unhurt. Sheedy rode the mare. Summaries: FIRST RACE. For two-year-olds; purse $250; selling; half a mile. W. Street's b. f. Cadir, y, by Ben All-Carrissima.

One can hear all sorts of rumors regarding the future of St. Asaph. One thing is certain, the horses owned by August Belmont, the Messrs. Morris, May & Hall, W. B. Jennings, J. B. White, W. C. Daly, J. J. McCafferty, and a dozen other owners will not stay at St. Asaph if there is any conflict with the Jockey Club. HARNESS RACISG AT NICE.

Mr. Bennett's Delver, Howard B. Phillips

NICE, April 5. The trotting races of the Nice International meeting over the Nice course at St. Laurent du Var began to-day. The track is a circular one, 1,630 metres around. Its width is variable. The roadway is of turf, and in fair condition. It is at least dry. The course is laid upon low ground, and is bordered by the River Var. The grand stands are near the river. The distance of the track from Nice is about eighteen kilometres, and there are two railway stations near it. The environs are very picturesque. The horses are stabled close to the course. Pneumatic tires on the sulkles and wagons are in general use, James Gordon Bennett's horses are not in condition to race. The weather was clear and fine to-day, and there was no wind.

The first race was for the Prix de l'Elevage Français, valued at 4,000 francs, 2,700 francs with a trophy going to the first horse, 1,100 francs to the second, 475 francs to the third, and 125 francs to the fourth; distance, 3,200 metres. The entries were:

They were followed in order by Bichette and Colomba. Louisette came in second, but was disqualified for running. The official time was not announced.

DAVID GIDEON BACK FROM FRISCO. The Well-known Turfman Hopes the Gray Bill Will Pass.

David Gideon of the well-known racing firm of Gideon & Daly was seen at Delmonico's last night. He said that he was glad to be in New York once more. Some months ago Gideon started for San Francisco, and since then he has been basking in the California clime and enjoying racing under California skies. Much as he enjoyed the winter in that section of the country, he said that he has no love for the spring, and this with the duties dependent on him as the active manager of his stable induced him to return

"I have followed the course of the Gray bill with the greatest care," he said. "I think the measure is a good one. I think it gives us all we want or under the present conditions could really wish for, and I hope it will pass. Of course it may not be all that the racing associations desire, but they after all only play a secondary part. Their profits in the past have been enormous, and I think it is only fair that they should

"Under the Ives Pool bill the racing associations reaped all the profit there was in racing. and the public contributed all the money. Things will be a little different this year, but

Things will be a little different this year, but my interest in racing is as great perhaps as that of any man on the turf, and I am willing to take my chances.

"My visit to San Francisco was a very pleasant one. The climate is admirably adapted to winter racing, and they are having some good sport there, with the prospect of improvement along many lines. San Francisco is a long way from home, and I met comparatively few Eastern owners out there. The betting men seemed to do very well and were satisfied with the sport. Our stable betting men seemed to do very well and were satisfied with the sport. Our stable jockey, Griffin, has been doing good work at the Bay District track, and will be, in my opinion, a cleverer lad this year than ever before. That is saying a good deal, but it comes pretty near being correct."

There is not much prospect of the stable's famous dark blue being seen before the opening of the legitimate season in this State. When questioned about his stable, Gideon said it was rather early to say whether there was another His Highness or The Butterflies in the string, but that there were one or two which they expected to be up with the crackajacks. He will visit his farm at Holmdel, N. J., to-morrow and inspect the horses.

PROF. HOLLIS'S INVENTION.

Machine to Test the Energy Expended by Oaremen.

Boston, April 5 .- Prof. Hollis of the Lawrence Scientific School at Harvard University has de-vised a machine for accurately testing the energy expended by carsmen. The only apparatus employed is a rowing machine fixed on a frictionless support and the necessary instruments for measuring and recording the amount of energy expended on the oar. Friction being eliminated, it is possible to obtain a record of every particle of energy expended, however small in amount. An accurate record is obtained of the efficiency of the stroke from the time the

of the efficiency of the stroke from the time the oar catches the water until it is pulled through and the recovery completed. The autographic reproduction of the record on paper by clearly defined lines is obtainable by means of electricity.

The machine is placed in the new engineering building, and for the present the experimenting is kept secret. The machine should prove useful not only in detecting individual faults in the oarsmen, but also by showing at what periods of the stroke the energy is expended with the least results; also in discovering what is the ideal stroke, a problem which in the past has embarrassed the rowing expert, because he has been compelled to depend on his eye merely in forming judgments. Practically, as well as theoretically, the most successful stroke is that which is the most commission energy.

WITH THE BALL PLAYERS.

Catcher Schriver Highs and May Be Paired with Ruste-A Blamond Laid Out on Manhattan Fleid, so that Davis's Men Can Play There if Necessary-The Players Spent Testerday in Light Practice at the Pole Grounds-Games Played Yesterday.

The New Yorks spent yesterday afternoon practising on the Polo grounds. The weather was just right for ball playing, and it seemed a pity that a game could not have been arranged. Manager Davis sent his men to the plate to bat left-handed Knauss, and the latter showed quite a bit of speed. Two young players, Kelley from Albany and Vought from Paterson, were on the field. Kelley is a catcher of some promise and Vought an infielder, but there is no chance for them on the New York team Billy Schriver, the new catcher, signed his morning. President Freedman paid a visit to the Polo grounds, and was busy for several hours insecting things and instructing Superintendent Bell on certain points. The painters were busy on the two club houses and carpenters were fixing up the bleaching boards. The deadheads put to a still further inconvenience. especially those who have been in the habit of watching the games from the viaduct and the bluff, for lofty poles have been erected along the right-field fence and canvas banners will be stretched across, completely shutting out the Mr. Freedman also went over to Manhattan Field, where the track is nearly ready for athlette cames. A new baseball diamond has been aid out, and a back stop will be built in a few days. Mr. Freedman says that the New Yorks, whenever the Polo grounds are not in shape, will play their games on the Field, as the system of drain pipes is better than on the bigger great crowd is expected to see the game between the New Yorks and Yales. The New Haven collegians have not played the local Leaguers since 1893, when they were shut out. Last year they not only won the college championship, but they also defeated the Boston and Brooklyn League teams. The latter feat was principally due to the phenomenal pitching of Carter, who will face the New Yorks to-day. It will be the second game for the college cup offered by the New York Club, and Manager Davis says his men will try to beat the Blues as badly as they walloped the Pennsylvanians on Thursday, Rusic, Meekin, and German will pitch three innings aplece for the local team. BROOKLYN, 16; ATLANTA, 11. ATLANTA, Ga., April 5.—The ball game here to-day between the Brooklyn and Atlanta teams was played before a very large and enthusiastic crowd of ball cranks. Atlanta was outplayed both in the field and at the bat. While the game at times was dull and uninteresting, there was some fine fielding and scientific piace hitting by the visitors. Brooklyn has a strong corps of pitchers, who should do fine work and help materially to keen their team un among the pitchers, who should do line work and help materially to keep their team up among the leaders. Both Stein and Gumbert, while they did not let themselves out, displayed fine speed and control, and merely toyed with the Atlanta batsmen. John Grim is doing yeoman work be-hind the bat and hitting the ball hard. His long drive over the left field fence was terrific and cleared the grounds by twenty-five yards. The

They Start on Their Southern Trip Next

Friday, and Have Bright Prospects. PRINCETON, April 6,-The Princeton baseball team will leave on their Southern trip next Friday, playing the Baltimore League team in Baltimore on Saturday and Monday and the Georgetown College team in Washington Tuesday and Wednesday, Capt. Brooks will take fifteen men on this trip, and, owing to the unusual large number of candidates for the pitcher's box, five pitchers will be taken along. There are at present twenty-three candidates for the team, but, owing to the excellent showing made by the various candidates, but four positions outside of pitcher may be considered as "cinched," namely: Otto, first base; Gunster, third base; Payne, left field, and D. Ward, right field. Capt. Brooks is undecided Gunster, third base: Payne, left field, and D. Ward, right fielh. Capt. Brooks is undecided whether to play second base, which he has been covering thus far this season, or to return to his old position at short stop. The chances are that he will be found at short stop for the rest of the season, leaving Butler and Reiter to fight it out at second.

Catcher will be the one weak spot on the Princeton team this year. Williams, who caught but fairly weil last year, is showing no improvement, while Trenchard has greatly deteriorated in his work thus far, and Titus and Altiand, the two new candidates for the position, have received little opportunity of showing what they can do. The candidates for the reason of the team can but keep up with the pace set by the pitchers, Princeton will make a better showing this year than she hasdone for several seasons. Bradley, Altman, Hitzrot, and Wilson are well up in the Varsity class, while Easton and Jayne are promising youngsters, who will make excellent substitutes.

Cochran, full back on last year's 'Varsity, is covering first base for the second nine in a manner which would insure him the position on the first nine if Otto were not covering it. If Brooks goes to short, Butler, a freshman from Lawrenceville, will probably play second base although Reiter, the Varsity half back, will give him a close rub for the position. Butler has the advantage of heing a heavier hitter and a quicker helder than Reiter, Gunster is covering the ball with more regularity than formerly. Fayne and D. Ward will fill left and right field, respectively, while centre field will, in all probability, be covered by Bradley when he is not in the pitcher's box, and by Altman when Branley is pitching. The reient Vale-Princeton agreement deprives Princeton of two of her atrongest men. Suter and keily. Both of these players have just entered Princeton this term and are not clicible to play in the Vale game, and consequently will not play in any of the important games. Suter is a heavy hitter, and has been

C, C, N, Y, to Run a Relay Race with "Pennsy,"

It is not exaggerating it to say that a popular feature of track athletics is the intercollegiate relay race. In this event each competing college has four representatives, each of whom runs a quarter of a mile-making in all one mile. The first runners are sent off simultaneously by pistol shot, and as each finishes he touches the shoulder of the man who will carry his colors through the next quarter, and so on. Harvard University has never been beaten at this game. A challenge has been received from the University of Fennsylvania by the College of the City of New York Ahlette Association to run a race of this kind, and it has been accepted. The trials to determine the four C.C. N. Y. representatives and one substitute will be held this week. The C.C. N. Y. men will be selected from G. V. Lyons, '97; J. K. Roll, '97; Weechsler, '95; Deignan, '95; Geoghegan, '90; Jellinghouse, '98, and Loe, '96.

The baseball men practised three times last week preparatory to their game with the New York University nine. The practice on Thursday afternoon was the best. In the game with Columbia College a week ago yeaserday, to the surprise of all C.C. N. Y. men, their veteran players from the '93 and '94 teams showed up in poor form. At left field, third base, short stop, and catcher—all positions filled by the old men—C.C. N. Y. was lamentably weak.

The lacrosso men practised but once during the week, on Wednesday, and owing to the disagreeable weather none of them felt like putting in any especially hard licks. They will come around before the season is under way. shoulder of the man who will carry his colors

STARK WINS THE CUP.

KEENET COULDN'T STOP HIM WHEN HE GOT STARTED.

The Nervy Brooklyn Expert Ahead Just Once and Then His Rival Has It All His Own Way-Onkes Is Third Prize Winner and Dr. Miller and Townsend Tie and Divide the Fourth and Last Prize

When J. Byron Stark, the dandy expert of the new Manhattan A. C., met Frank Keeney, the best player of the Brooklyn Oxford Cinb, last night at Daly's Brooklyn Assembly Rooms in the cue battle that was to decide which of them should carry off the handsome Brunswick emblem in the interclub amateur billiard tourney all of the stars who have been in the thick of the memorable cue battle were critical speciators. Arthur Townsend of the St. Joseph's Lyceum Club, the scratch man of the tourney, who was disabled by sickness and played out his game nevertheless, very properly had a front sent. There was a great crush of billiard lovers to see the game, and among the sporty amateurs a lot of greenbacks were wagered on even terms, the Brooklynites picking Keeney as against Stark, who was a big favorite with the Gothamites. Stark was handleapped at 300 to Keeney's

265, but he took the lead at the start, playing with that admirable stroke that has won so much praise during the tourney games. Both he and Keeney were a triffe nervous, but Keeney kept a stiff backbone, and caught his speedie rival pretty soon. His advantage was short-Stark's ingenious position carroms lived, for Stark's ingenious position carroms began to tell after a while and he passed the first wire an easy leader with a score of 102 to 70. Stark peeled off his standing collar right after this, and it wasn't long before Keener followed his example. Stark put together four neat doubles of 13, 10, 10, and 13, and got his rival guessing as to the ultimate result.

These breaks put Stark ahead of his handleap on a total of 145 to 78, and seemed to give him a deal of confidence. An inning of 27, starred with bizarre draws and drives for position, sent him away ahead a moment later, and when him away ahead a moment later, and when Keeney got around his first wire at 107, Stark was 72 points in the lead. To win the game all the New Yorker had to do was to take it easy and protect this advantage by safety play when necessary.

Most players would think this was an easy thing to but the next safe that the same all the same and the same are safety.

Most players would think this was an easy thing to do, but the very fact that at this stage of the battle Stark, taking a glass of champagne, said that the strain on him was greater than it could possibly be on Keeney under the circumstances, was proof that the man who is in the lead in such a cue battle has the worse end of it so far as worry is concerned. Stark held his own, however, and turned out some tasteful carroms. For once in the tourney Keeney seemed really worried, but to his credit it should be said that he accepted the inevitable with easy grace, and he laughed the inevitable with easy grace, and he laughed and meant it when he congratulated Stark

BAY RIDGE A. C. INCORPORATED. To Be Run on the Name Lines as the At-

A certificate of incorporation of the newly organized Bay Ridge Athletic Club of Brooklyn was filed in the Supreme Court in that city yesterday by Lawyer M. P. Lynch of 21 Park Row. Seaside clubs of Coney Island. The incorporators are Mira J. Cumming, Patrick Feason, Michael E. Healey, and Alfred Walters. The men named are all residents of South Brooklyn. Mr. Cumming is well known in Democratic circles in Kings county. At the last election he was a candidate for the office of Supervisor of the Eighth ward.

A plot of ground has been leased by the officers of the new club adjoining the Bliss mansion at Owl's Head, Bay Ridge. Some of the stars of the fistic world will be engaged to give boxing exhibitions. A frame building to cost $7,000 will be erected. Within will be the regulation ring and posts. It is expected that Mr. Bliss will enter a protest against the holding of prize fights at Owl's Head, which is the pretiest spot on the New Utrecht shore front.

Lawyer Lynch yesterday outlined the club's programme as follows: "We shall conduct nothing but glove fights, and all our exhibitions shall be conducted within the law. The present club house will be abandoned shortly. Work on shall be conducted within the law. The present club house will be abandoned shortly. Work on the new building will be begun at once."

The club house will be in close proximity to the Bay Ridge Ferry and the terminus of the Brooklyn "L" road. It is not at all likely that the police will interfere with any of the contests, as they now permit a club at Fort Hamilton to hold exhibitions in the Glass Pavilion on the Shore Road.

While Houben's backers acknowledged their inability to raise a purse of $5,000 for a match, the backers of Zimmerman have agreed to a low them time to raise the money. William Baduch, who has agreed to back Zimmerman, wrote to a friend on March 9 the following communication:

Inotice in one of the morning papers a letter from Mr. Craninckz, in which he doubts Zimmerman being a faster man than Houben. I fully recognize that Houben is speedy, but I am convinced that Zimmerman can beat him.

In any case, it is very h any case, it is sely to a purse among Houben's backers it least 25,000 francs—I will cover any amount up 100,000 francs—and Zimmy will come back to Paris and race him.

I rely on you to make known this proposition to Mr.

Craninckz, and shall wait fifteen days for his reply. In reply C. Craninckz, who is managing Hou-ben, writes:

Mr. William Baduel's challenge, in which he backs:

Zimmerman against Houben for 45,000 francs and over, is simply overwhelming. It shows that Mr. Baduel not only possesses an unlimited confidence in the "Fiying Yankee's" speed qualities, but over and above that mas 26,000 frances to risk.

Everybody, however, is not so favorably "fixed," and you can readily understand that in spite of the confidence we have in our young champion, we are neither disposed nor in a position to put upsuch a formidable bet.

However, seeing that Houben has backers even in France, I shall take advantage of Mr. Baduel's offer of fitteen days and try and raise the necessary funds. I confess that my only object in doing this is to see these two extraordinary men come together, as like Houben himself, betting is against my principles. The match will doubtless take place in Brussels, in which case film? Place and the principle of have one race in Paris and another arranged so as to have one race in Paris and another in Brussels.

Housen's friends have since been trying to raise the $5,000, and while they have agreed to race for a smaller purse it is thought likely that they will succeed in finding financial aid to make up the required $5,000. Zimmerman will not race for less than $5,000, but if Houben's friends will guarantee that amount he will leave for France at once to prepare for the race.
